

We are a human potential organization for professional development and personal growth. Meet coaches and trainers who positively impact lives and grow business through learning. Our belief is that continuous learning is the core of every successful life & business. Whatever answers exist currently are old answers; we offer a fresh way of thinking and approaching your life & business issues. We can work with you to identify your individual training, or coaching needs, delivering a customized program that aligns with your intended results. All of our programs combine solid strategy coupled with our expertise of how people learn and grow. Our coaches are trained and experienced at eliciting insight, planning actions and ensuring that you get results.

Is this you?

We are looking for business coaches who fit the following profile, is this you?

- ✔ Do you have some experience actually coaching a client for money?
- ✔ Have you been trained in the basics of coaching by an ICF certified coaching company?
- ✔ Do you absolutely love people?
- ✔ Are you learning based, always reading and taking classes?
- ✔ Do you have a formal business education?
- ✔ Do you have practical experience as a business owner or as an executive in a company?
- ✔ Do you have a small existing coaching practice that you are willing to merge or have you not yet started your coaching practice?
- ✔ Are you emotionally mature?
- ✔ Can you make a difference for someone without needing their acknowledgement or approval?
- ✔ Are you at a good place in your life (not in survival) where you can be of true support to another?

Join us and benefit from a proven business model for coaching.

Administrative Support

We have a coaching program coordinator that schedules your clients and keeps you up to date using an internet based CMS system. Our coordinator reminds and confirms calls with clients for you. You will be able to see and track client contact history in our system. We have a controller who manages the invoicing, collections and payroll.

Marketing Support

We provide the software that lets you see your calendar for scheduled appointments and make your follow up/lead calls on time.

We have marketing programs for your leads and your current database and we systematically market to them "at cost"

We have a marketing administrative assistant who manages these marketing programs for you.

We have professional marketing such as; brochures, questionnaires, postcards and website.

You will benefit from our nationwide advertising and you will receive qualified leads from us.

Business Tools

You will have numerous tools to use for your clients such as behavioral assessments, business plans, various hiring tools and more.

You will have access to proven customized training programs to lead and prospect for business.

Credibility

You would be in partnership with an already existing brand known nationally as an established business education company. We are members of International Coaching Federation, World Association of Business coaches, Better Business Bureau, Coach Connection, CoachLink, and a Lifetime member with Coach U.

The owner Alicia Marie has been a coach for more than ten years; she is trained in several coaching disciplines. She has deep and varied business knowledge and experience and will be your ongoing coach and mentor.
